

A vivacious and playful spirit with a strong work ethic and inner drive. She enjoys the immersion into new characters that feels like a cloak gently draped over her.

Princie has participated in numerous acting workshops and completed an 8 week “Get Scene Get Ready” course with Fern Nicholson which was exciting, challenging, and contagiously fun. She has continued to develop her craft in short films, tv commercials, facebook and website advertising, modelling as well as diverse improvised role playing which she felt deep satisfaction and gratification in morphing into fictional personas.

Princie has a genuine and light hearted personality that people are drawn to. This creates a natural and effortless atmosphere to bring out the best from everyone. She enjoys meeting new people and the on-set buzz that’s created whilst filming.
